CHRISTIAN AGADEMY

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT LCA?

Here at LCA we teach the true story of Easter. Our lead teachers incorporate Bible stories & arts/crafts that are centered around Christ's death, burial, and resurrection.

In addition, Mrs. Jo, our chapel leader, continues to break down the explanation on an age-appropriate level so it is easy for the children to learn. Mrs. Jo shared, 'For the Tod's & PK2's, we talked about how Jesus is God's son, how He died on a cross, was buried in a tomb and in 3 days He arose again!'

When teaching the PK3, PK4 and Kindergarten classes, Mrs. Jo shared 'we are going to do the "Resurrection eggs." We are going through the Easter story with a symbol from each egg. The Holy Week begins with Jesus riding in on the donkey and ends with the empty egg symbolizing Jesus' Resurrection. The kids love talking about what each egg represents and how it pertains to the Easter story."

Be sure to ask your children about their Resurrection egg!

We hope you have a wonderful & Blessed Easter with your family and friends from all our LCA team.

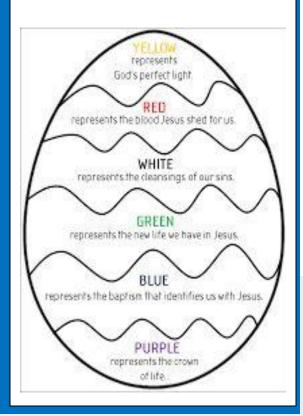

Blessings, Jill Barbee Director

PTU News

Congratulations to Ms. Dena!

April's Teacher of the Month!

Parents please do NOT enter classrooms

PTU & LCA have been working hard on Artwork by the kids. Coming soon!

The Scholastic Book Fair was a success, we met our goal of 313 books, with a total of over 320! Thank you to volunteers and parents for supporting it.

Mrs. Angela Joines is leaving us for Georgia! We are sad to see her go but wish her the best on her new adventure. She will be missed.

Temperature and screening questions are no longer required! 1-way hallway and mask ARE still required. Please DO NOT enter classrooms. Continue to exit out the rear door.
